

Class-VI

Chapter-07

1. One Word Answers:

- a) What is the profession of the most of the people of Bangladesh?
Ans: Agricultural works.
- b) How many villages are there in Bangladesh?
Ans: More than 60 thousands.
- c) Why Bangladesh is called an agro-based country?
Ans: Most of the people are engaged with agriculture.
- d) What will happen if the production decreases than the demand?
Ans: Famine.
- e) What portion of the total population lives in the city area?
Ans: One-Fourth.
- f) Which are the port cities of Bangladesh?
Ans: Chittagram and Khulna.
- g) Write two names of the industrial city.
Ans: Narayangang and Khulna.
- h) From the ancient time what has play the key role in the economy of Bangladesh?
Ans: Agriculture.
- i) What is the contribution of agriculture to our economy?
Ans: 20%.
- j) Which economic sector is the most important in the development of our country?
Ans: Industrial sector.
- k) What type of country is Bangladesh?
Ans: A developing country.
- l) Where do the most of the people live in Bangladesh?
Ans: In the villages.
- m) What are we use to grow more crops at present?
Ans: High bred seeds.
- n) Why do the people come to the cities?
Ans: Searching for better works.
- o) Who are called Human resource?
Ans: The skilled people.
- p) Why are the people of our country unable to take decision?
Ans: Lack of education.
- q) What are the economic sectors of Bangladesh?
Ans: Agriculture, industry and service sector.
- r) What is the potentiality of Bangladesh?
Ans: Fertile lands and huge manpower.
- s) What is needed to turn the population as resource?

- Ans: Education and proper training.
- t) Which sector earns valuable foreign currency for our country?
Ans: Trade and commerce.
- u) What is the profession of the most of the people of rural area?
Ans: Most of them are farmers.
- v) What are the percentages of the people living in cities?
Ans: 30%.
- w) Who live in the rented houses?
Ans: Middle class and lower middle class people.
- x) What are the main economic sectors of our country?
Ans: Domestic and foreign trade.
- y) Which sectors are called service sector?
Ans: Education, health, housing, transports, bank, law and order, administrations etc.
- z) What is the population of China?
Ans: 135 crore people.
- aa) Which countries are known as the poor country in Africa?
Ans: Mali, Shad, Central African Republic, Nigeria etc.
- bb) Who can play an important role to create human resource?
Ans: State and Government.
- cc) Which work is not considered as agricultural sector?
Ans: Weaving clothes.
- dd) What is needed to develop the economy of any country?
Ans: Proper Planning and implementation of that planning.

Unseen Creative Questions:

Mr. Anisuzzaman is discussing the economic sectors of Bangladesh in class VI. He says, “Among the economic sectors of our country agriculture, industry and trade and commerce are very much important.” He also discussed about some other economic sectors which are very important for the economy of Bangladesh.

- What is the name of the port cities of Bangladesh?
- What is called service sector? Explain.
- Give a short note on the economic life of the cities.
- Discuss the economic sectors of Bangladesh mentioned by Anis sir.

Ms. Rahela is a widow. She has to feed two children. She cultivates vegetables in the field that her husband left. She rears duck, hen and cow. Though she is a widow, her family is fully solvent.

- How many villages are there in Bangladesh?
- What is rural economy?
- Describe the importance of rural economy.
- “Rahela is the reflection of the works of rural economy” Explain it.

Extra Knowledge Based Questions:

- a. What is main source of raw material of the industrial sector of Bangladesh?
- b. How is the economy of Bangladesh?
- c. What is the percentage of population lives in the urban areas?
- d. What is the percentage of contribution of agriculture in our national economy?
- e. What is internal commerce?
- f. What is domestic trade?

Extra Understanding Based Questions:

- a. Why Bangladesh is called an agricultural country?
- b. What is meant by Service sector?
- c. What is needed for agricultural development?
- d. What is human resource? Explain.
- e. Why is needed for agricultural development?
- f. Write about agriculture's role in national income.